

Stewardship Messages

Sept. 6, 2026

23rd Sunday in Ordinary Time

“You, son of man, I have appointed watchman for the house of Israel ...” Ezekiel 33:7

For many, it is easy to be generous with our God-given gifts; but just how generous might need a bit of thought and honesty with ourselves. Do we give generously or do we really give just what is expected or at minimum levels? We are called to strengthen and grow our gifts and give back with increase.

24th Sunday in Ordinary Time

“For if we live, we live for the Lord, and if we die, we die for the Lord; so then, whether we live or die, we are the Lord’s.” Romans 14:8

This passage speaks to the very heart and meaning of stewardship. Everything we are and everything we have are gifts from God. We are called to use those gifts to serve His kingdom on Earth.

25th Sunday in Ordinary Time

“So when the first came, they thought that they would receive more, but each of them also got the usual wage. And on receiving it they grumbled against the landowner. ... He said to them in reply, ‘My friend, I am not cheating you. Did you not agree with me for the usual daily wage? Am I not free to do what I wish with my own money? Are you envious because I am generous?’” Matthew 20:10-15

As servants of God, what we receive from Him is not a result of the work that we do, but rather is a result of God’s generosity. Stewards give without questioning what they will receive in return.

26th Sunday in Ordinary Time

“Do nothing out of selfishness or out of vainglory; rather, humbly regard others as more important than yourselves, each looking not for his own interests, but also for those of others.” Philippians 2:3-4

For many stewardship can be confused with volunteering, but they are different. Stewardship is an attitude. It is a way of living that is reflected in what we do and how we serve others. In the sharing of our God-given gifts for the good of others, we demonstrate our gratitude to God.
