

Reflection Questions for Taking Care of the Earth and Ourselves

What is the interconnectedness of the earth, stewardship, and being pro-life? How do they all connect?

Deacon Jim read Isaiah 27:3. God is the keeper of the earth. How can we respect life through the creation God has formed?

Where is your favorite place in nature and how can you seek out God in that place?

How can seeing God through nature help your mental health?